

Excellence in Innovation Award – COVID-19 Edition.

With the challenges COVID-19 has presented, CACEE/ACSEE has created the “Excellence in Innovation Award – COVID-19 Edition” to specifically address the changing landscape of the virtual world. The recipient(s) will be awarded in the Winter of 2021.

The CACEE Excellence in Innovation Award – COVID-19 Edition recognizes:

1. Remote On-Boarding

Recognizes organizations that developed remote student on-boarding programs for post-secondary students or recent graduates.

2. Remote Career Education Delivery by a Career Centre

Recognizes Career Centres that pivoted in delivering career education from in-person to virtual.

3. Remote Campus Recruitment Strategy

Recognizes high degrees of creativity, student engagement, and impact in the building of employer brand in the virtual campus recruitment space.

4. Virtual Career Educator

Recognizes a career educator who mastered delivering content virtually, being innovative in learning, using the tools at their disposal.

Criteria:

Must be a member of CACEE in good standing; however, may become a member at the same time as award submission is made.

Nomination requires:

- A completed nomination application form (completed via the CACEE website)
- Projects being nominated must be able to show actual deliverables.
- Source of nomination will be disclosed during the evaluation period.
- You may nominate a project for multiple categories.

Nomination & Selection:

- This award is nominated by the membership of CACEE.
- This award is available for self-nomination.
- Nominations are evaluated by the Selection Committee and approved by the CACEE Board of Directors.
- Each category will award one winning project. CACEE reserves the right not to give out an award in any given year.
