

Elections Committee

Purpose: The Committee manages the CACEE annual elections process in accordance with the By-Laws, working in partnership with its Communications colleagues to raise national awareness and engagement in this key part of the CACEE lifecycle. The committee is responsible for overseeing the director nomination and election process. Its responsibilities include recruiting and recommending candidates for election to the National Board based on ensuring the required competencies and skills are present on the Board.

Accountability: To the Board of Directors

Responsibilities:

- Its role is to identify members to stand as candidates, considers the skill sets required and puts forward recommendations to the Board. The Committee manages the CACEE annual elections process in accordance with the By-Laws.

Frequency of Meetings:

As determined by the chair/national board, and in accordance with the election and communication timeline outlined in the association bylaws.